THE RING UNBROKEN.

Anyone who thinks the Ormsby ring is broken is mistaken. The report of the Grand Jury makes them more strongly entrenched than ever. Most of their illegal acts are either endorsed by the Grand Jury or white washed. But they cannot be white-washed in the eyes of the public. The law says that a County Commissioner who is interested in county contracts shall be deprived of his office and also fined and imprisoned.

Now the APPEAL does not wish to see anyone imprisoned for dabbled in county contracts or even fined but his removal from office would be a wholesome lesson and teach officers to obey the law. If Bray did not know that his acts were illegal, he would have noticed that they were omitted and would have corrected the error. He did not do so. According to the Tribune these omissions have been going on for 18 months six of which occurred when the APPEAL had the advertising. This makes it worse and worse.

The public are also led to believe that when Mr. Hank Martin shoved contracts on McCluskey, his reputed foreman and Muldoon his reputed wood partner that he was in no way interested. It is no doubt a case of disinterested benevolence.

No action was taken by the Grand Jury in the matter of letting contracts to the county physician without letting others bid. The Grand Jury excused itself on the ground that it had no jurisdiction in the matter. It examined witnesses however but concluded to make no report. It seems as if the parties interested were entitled to an exoneration or something definite if testimony had been taken.

One man with the backbone to have written a minority report would have made a tenstrike.

The returns of the Alabama election, held last Monday, show a revolution in the political opinion of that State. The People's party polled about seventy per cent. of the Democratic vote in several counties and elect over half of the members of the Legislature. The only place in the State where the straight Democrats have a majority is in the "Black Belt," which comprises about six counties. Thomas E. Jones, the present Governor, who was a candidate for re-election on the regular Democratic ticket, has only a few thousand majority, though in 1890 it exceeded 97,000.

The Alabama election indicates that there is a revolution in political opinion in the South as well as in the North. It is almost a moral certainty that Weaver will get the electoral vote of that State as well as of Georgia, the Carolinas, Florida, Tennessee and Texas next November.

The Sacramento News says: Like every sensible paper in the United States the San Francisco Star favors a genuine postal telegraph. That is a reform not far away. When it comes, the next thing will be government ownership and control of railroads. The people are beginning to think, and they insist on having their rights.

It was rumored about town last evening that Louis Stevenson had been indicted by the late Grand Jury for attempted bribery. The Grand Jury evidently propose to make a scape goat of Stevenson and give County officers a rest.

Holden, the astronomical monster-bank of the Lick Observatory, is getting a lot of cheap advertising out of the Mars sensation. He is one of the greatest telescope fakers and sidereal snobs in his line.
